FORMULA 1 GRAN PREMIO DE MÉXICO 2016°

Mexico City, May 4th, 2016

What to expect from Formula 1® as a Speed Lover (blue /orange zone)?

If you love speed and want to enjoy all possible records and the sound produced by the cars engines on the straight of the renewed Autodromo Hermanos Rodriguez, the complex Moises Solana or on the short straight, then you are a Speed Lover. Why?

Zones blue and orange for the Speed Lover profile are specially designed for the attendees to identify the best way to enjoy the race, according to their preferences. This profile is provided with different grandstands around the circuit in one of the fastest FORMULA 1® tracks, here you'll be able to enjoy cars passing by the zone where the speed record of season 2015 was broken with 366.4 km/h, witnessing cars pass-by at full speed, the braking before entering the complex Moises Solana and its way out towards The Stadium.

Witnesses FORMULA 1 GRAN PREMIO DE MEXICO 2015®

Eddy Vilard

"Being able to enjoy that zone during the historical return of FORMULA 1® to our country was incredible, I could experience the adrenaline emitted by the cars and being witness of the speed record imposed by Pastor Maldonado during the race, I would definitely return the same place for the incoming race in Mexico" Renato Lopez

FORMULA 1 GRAN PREMIO DE MÉXICO 2016°

"Being able to choose your favorite zone for the race with the proper information is a huge advantage, the circuits offer different kind of attractions, for those who love to experience the full speed and for those who prefer a more technical zone for each track, the important thing to know is what to expect from each of the zones so you can take a full advantage of your ticket".

The blue zone for the Speed Lover profile still has some available seats on grandstands 3A, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 6A. Do not miss the opportunity of first-hand living FORMULA 1® cars speed.
